DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

1. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout and content for patent applications. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

The following order or arrangement is preferred in framing the specification and, except for the reference to the drawings, each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underling or bold type, as section headings. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) Title of the Invention.
- (b) Cross-Reference to Related Applications.
- (c) Statement Regarding Federally Sponsored Research or Development.
- (d) Reference to a "Sequence Listing," a table, or a computer program listing appendix submitted on compact disc (see 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5)).
- (e) Background of the Invention.
 - 1. Field of the Invention.
 - 2. Description of the Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) Brief Summary of the Invention.
- (g) Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing(s).
- (h) Detailed Description of the Invention.
- (i) Claim or Claims (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) Abstract of the Disclosure (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) Drawings.
- (l) Sequence Listing, if on paper (see 37 CFR 1.821-1.825).

2. The spacing of the lines of the specification is such as to make reading and entry of amendments difficult. New application papers with lines double spaced on good quality paper are required.

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: Multiple Disc Rotor With Alternate Magnet And Laminated Pole Pieces Rims.

Claim Objections

4. The claims are objected to because the lines are crowded too closely together, making reading and entry of amendments difficult. Substitute claims with lines one and one-half or double spaced on good quality paper are required. See 37 CFR 1.52(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,877,578 to Mitcham et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 4,208,600 to Hatch.

Mitcham et al. discloses a rotor disc (14) for use in an electrical machine has at least one circumferential rotor rim (16) mounted thereon, the rotor rim comprising at least one row of alternate magnets (20) and laminated pole pieces (18), the laminations in each pole piece being supported by at least one bolt (not shown) which extends through the rotor disc.

However, it fails to disclose a clearance gap being provided to electrically insulate the laminations from the bolt passing therethrough.

Hatch teaches the use of an insulating sleeve (34) filling a nonmagnetic extension (35) for the purpose of insulate the shielding members (29).

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to use the insulating sleeve disclosed by Hatch on the rotor disc disclosed by Mitcham et al. for the purpose of insulate the shielding members.

7. With regards to claim 2, Mitcham et al. discloses laminations concentrically mounted on the bolt in a radially spaced relationship as shown in Figure 2.

8. With regards to claim 3, Mitcham et al. discloses laminations which are bonded together to form a stack as shown in Figure 2.

9. With regards to claim 4-7, Hatch discloses elastomeric resilient annular members (34) which are insulated and recessed at either end of the stack as shown in Figure 3.

10. With regards to claims 8-10, Hatch discloses the use of resilient means, such as nuts (33) and sprung washers, provided on the bolt for compressing the laminated pole pieces as shown in Figure 3.

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO-892.
